SUMMER SCHOOL OPTIONS

There are several online summer school options available to students to recover classes in which they did not pass, or to get ahead. For all options, students must complete the counselor approval link for Options 2 and 3 by May 21st. Students can take a maximum of two credits during the summer. The summer school options are below.

Note: The student's counselor can help with registration advisement; however, any additional questions or concerns with the course should be addressed with the summer school entity.

Summer school options to make up failed coursework:

Option 1: DHHS Face to Face Summer School Classes – (Maximum of 1 class)

Students eligible for the DHHS Summer School program must have taken and failed the course to attend DHHS Summer School. Course options are limited. Click here for the registration form. The registration deadline is May 14th. For more information, please contact the main office at 678-874-6302 or Tara_Moore-Hicks@dekalbschoolsga.org.

Option 2: FLEX Academy –FLEX Restore Online Classes (Not NCAA approved)

FLEX Academy Restore is a free online credit recovery program through DCSD. This option provides teacher support through virtual tutorials and open instructional labs. For more information and to see courses available, click here. Classes are available June 1st-June 18th through VERGE. Eligible Students: Students who have previously failed the requested course with a grade of 55-69 may participate in FLEX Restore summer classes.

Option 3: Georgia Virtual Credit Recovery (Not NCAA approved)

Georgia Virtual Credit Recovery is a teacher-less course. There is no teacher support. The course is free if it is the student's 1st attempt, or $25 for additional attempts. For more information and to create an account, click here. Deadline to complete course(s) is June 25th.

Counselor Approval Link for Options 2 and 3 – Complete this link once you have reviewed the credit recovery summer school options above. Your counselor will contact you by email with additional guidance.
